MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

SUBJECT: MAZARENKO, fm

No.

1. Reference is made to a memorandum captioned as above dated 7 April 1950 from [redacted] Acting Chief, Security Division of CIA to you for the [redacted] of Mr. C. D. DeLoach. A copy of this memorandum was sent to this Office.

2. A further check of our files reflects that a Major MAZARENKO, fm, who cannot be identified positively with Subject, was an instructor at two Soviet Army Intelligence Schools, identified as Shalanka near Krasn, and Malakhovka near Moscow, dates unknown. In 1942, he was an instructor in a Soviet Army Intelligence School at 13-17 Karl Marx Street, Moscow.

3. The General MAZARENKO mentioned in referenced memorandum is believed possibly identical with Lt. Gen. Nikolai Fedorovich MAZARENKO, CO of the 19th Soviet Air Army in 1945. In January 1950, he was reported promoted to Colonel General.

4. Any pertinent information that you have developed or may develop on MAZARENKO or MAZARENKO will be greatly appreciated.
